DESIGNER SAYS REDS SWITCHED PLANE WRECKAGE

BURBANK, Calif., May

12 (AP)—The designer of the U-2 high-altitude spy plane says the Russians switched wreckage in releasing a second picture purporting to show a downed American plane.

"This looks more like it," said C. L. Johnson, of Lockheed Aircraft, when shown a reproduction of the Soviet picture showing wreckage on display.

"This definitely is not the same wreckage shown in the first picture released by the Russians," he said. "That was of a heavy airplane. This is a lightweight one, like the U-2."

Mr. Johnson has headed the firm that designed the first plane made public by the Russians since. He planned to announce the newest photoreproduction.
